Leading Chinese internet companies on the Fortune China 500 ranking 2021

Published by Lai Lin Thomala, Jan 4, 2022

According to the Fortune China 500 ranking in 2021, which was based on total revenues in 2020, the e-commerce giant Alibaba Group was the leading Chinese internet enterprise with an annual revenue of 482 billion yuan. Over the past few years, the Chinese online industry was dominated by three domestic tech giants, collectively known as BATs - Baidu, Alibaba, and Tencent. Due to censorship regulations, global internet leaders are blocked in China.
