EX-PARTE APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER WITH ASSET
FREEZE, ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION, EXPIDENT DISCOVERY, APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER WITH PREUDGEMENT SATIFITORY PERFORMANCE BOND, WITH INCORPORATED MEMORANDUM OF LAW

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA(with and/or without the United States) ex rel, Sharon Bridgewater, ex rel Sharon Bridgewater, hereby move, pursuant to Rule 64 and/or 65 and/or 66, and for a EX-PARTE EMERGENCY APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER WITH ASSET FREEZE, ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION, EXPIDENT DISCOVERY, APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER WITH PREUDGEMENT SATIFITORY PERFORMANCE BOND, and to restrain the ability of the Defendants to dissipate or dispose of any assets to preserve the status quo until such time as the preliminary injunction hearing is set. This motion is made on an ex parte basis pursuant to Rule 65(b)(1) and notice should not be required. This Motion is based on the Verified Complaint, affidavit, attached exhibits and/or declarations.

I. INTRODUCTION

Whenever the THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA(with and/or without the United States) ex rel, Sharon Bridgewater, "Private Attorney General" has cause to believe that a person has engaged in or is engaging in RICO activities, the THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA(with and/or without the United States) ex rel, Sharon Bridgewater, "Private Attorney General" may apply for and obtain, in the appropriate District court of this state, a temporary restraining order or injunction, or both, pursuant to Federal and/or State Law, prohibiting such person from continuing such practices, or engaging therein, or doing any act in furtherance thereof.

Both money damages and equitable relief are sought, the controlling authority where a plaintiff, seeking equitable and legal relief, sue the defendant for claims such as, RICO claims it authorizes injunctive relief and/or a TRO and/or a preliminary injunction pursuant to Fed. Rule Civil Procedure Rule 65 or 66 relief.

he court may make such orders or judgments as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by such person which may be necessary to enjoin the Defendants from further overt RICO acts. When the U.S. Attorney decides to indict someone under RICO, he or she has the option of seeking a pre-trial restraining order or injunction to temporarily seize a defendant's assets and prevent the transfer of potentially forfeitable property, as well as require the defendant to put up a performance bond. When it appears, by the verified complaint, and/or affidavit, that THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (with and/or without the United States) ex rel, Sharon Bridgewater, "is entitled to the relief demanded and such relief during the litigation, it appears that the defendant is doing, or threatens, or is about to do, or is procuring or suffering to be done, some act in violation of the plaintiff's rights respecting the subject of the action, it may be granted in any case where it is specially authorized by statute.

Under Rule 65(b), and/or 66 when it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by testimony that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result before the adverse parties or their attorneys can be heard in opposition, the court can issue a TRO or an injunction, and appoint a temporary receiver without notice to the adverse party.

The United States of America, ex rel Sharon Bridgewater "Private Attorney General" (with and/or without the United States of America), plaintiff's moves this court for a temporary restraining order and for a preliminary injunction pursuant to 18 U.S.C.A. section 1963(d)(1)(a), restraining and enjoining the above Defendants, its agents, employees, successors, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with it, from taking any action that would render unavailable to the United States property, subject to forfeiture under 18 U.S.C.A. section 1962, as related to prohibited racketeering activities, pending a hearing and determination of Plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction.

Make this affidavit in support of the motion by the United States for issuance of a temporary restraining order, and a preliminary injunction, pursuant to 18 U.S.C.A. section 1963(d)(1)(b), with respect to property subject to forfeiture under 18 U.S.C.A. section 1962, as related to prohibited racketeering activities.

The property subject to forfeiture is more fully described as: {tangible, real, personal. There is probable cause to believe that the property with respect to which the order is sought would in the event of conviction, be subject to forfeiture under 18 U.S.C.A. section 1962. There is substantial probability that failure of the court to enter the order will result in the property being destroyed, removed from the jurisdiction of the court, or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture, in that ten or more of the Defendants have fraudulently transferred property to other countries, in to hinder and delay the United States and/or the Plaintiff. The need to preserve the availability of the property through entry of the requested order outweighs any harm that would result to any person appearing to have an interest in the property. The United States will suffer irreparable injury, loss, or damage if a restraining order is not issued pending a hearing on the motion by the United States for a preliminary injunction.

SHARON BRIDGEWATER VS. OBAMA, HOLDER, ET AL

1 This motion is based on the assertion by the The United States of America, ex rel Sharon
2 Bridgewater "Private Attorney General" that the property with respect to which the order is 3 sough would, in the event of conviction of Defendant for violation of 18 U.S.C.A. section 1962 be subject to forfeiture.

Unless this motion is granted the United States of America, ex rel Sharon Bridgewater
"Private Attorney General" will suffer immediate and irreparable injury, loss, and damage if Defendants is permitted to dispose of, or otherwise render unavailable, the peroperty subject to forfeiture befoe a hearing can be had on Plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction, as more fully set forth in the Plaintiff's complaint filed in this action and in the affidavit of the United States of America, ex rel Sharon Bridgewater "Private Attorney General", attached to this motion.

II.

LEGAL STANDARD FOR GRANTING EX-PARTE APPLICATION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION WITH 64 and/or 65 and/or 66 ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

To obtain a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction the THE UNITED STATES
OF AMERICA(with and/or without the United States) ex rel,Sharon Bridgewater,"Private Attorney General" must show the following: (1) a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; (2) he/she is likely to suffer irreparable injury harm in th easence of preliminary relief;
(3) the balance of equities tips in his/her favor; and (4) an injnction is in the public interest, also an injnction may also be appropriate wher the plaintiff raises "serious question going to the merits demonstrates that "the balance of hardships tips sharply in the Plaintiff's favor." Civil RICO, 18

Upon the United States showing of probable cause, in this case THE UNITED STATES (with and/or without the United States) ex rel,Sharon Bridgewater,"Private Attorney General" and on behalf of (Specialty Investment Group L.L.C.A dissolved Georgia Company), to obtain 1964(a) The Attorney General may institute proceedings under this section. Pending final determination thereof, the court may at any time enter such restraining order or prohibitions, or 21 (a) The district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction to prevent and 22 restrain violations of section 1962 of this chapter by issuing appropriate orders, including, but 23 not limited to: ordering any person to divest himself of any interest, direct or indirect, in 24 any enterprise; imposing reasonable restrictions on the future activities or investments of any 25 person, including, but not limited to, prohibiting any person from engaging in the same type of 26 endeavor as the enterprise engaged in, the activities of which affect interstate or foreign 27 commerce; or ordering dissolution or reorganization of any enterprise, making due provision for 28 the rights of innocent persons.

(b) The Attorney General in this case, The United States of America ex rel Sharon Bridgewater, may institute proceedings under this section. Pending final determination thereof, the court may at any time enter such restraining order or prohibitions, or take such other actions, including the acceptance of satisfactory performance bonds, as it shall deem proper.

III. ARGUMENT

The pattern and practices of the Defendants warrants a temporary EX-PARTE EMERGENCY APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER WITH ASSET FREEZE, ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION, EXPEDITED DISCOVERY, APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER WITH PREJUDGEMENT SATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE BOND, dissolution of Organization, 18 USC Section 1964(a) vest district courts with powerful weapons to eliminate and prevent corruption in organizations, and accordingly authorized district courts to impose the full panoply of equitable relief, including, but not limited to, the intrusive remedies discussed below: "to prevent and restrain" violations of law under 18 U.S.C. § 1964(a).

The Supreme Court has repeatedly emphasized that courts are vested with extensive equitable powers to fashion appropriate remedies to redress unlawful conduct. He commit a RICO violation by establishing the same elements as in a criminal RICO case, except that criminal intent is not required; and (2) that there is a reasonable likelihood that the defendant will commit a violation And a "coercive public interest remedy" whereby the "defendant is enjoined by a prohibitory injunction to refrain from doing specific acts or he is commanded by a mandatory injunction to carry out specified acts includes the equitable remedies of divestiture, dissolution and "reorganization of any enterprise."

"'[D]issolution' refers to a . . . judgment which dissolves or terminates an illegal combination or association - putting it out of business, designed in the public interest to undo what could have been prevented had the defendants not outdistanced the government in their unlawful project." Schine Chain Theaters v. United States, 334 U.S. 110, 128 (1948). Both dissolution and divestiture serve to put "an end to the [unlawful] combination or conspiracy" and to "deprive . . . defendants of the "Divestiture has been called the most important of antitrust remedies." United States

Moreover, the Supreme Court has pointedly ruled that where "the public interest is involved. . . those equitable powers assume an even broader and more flexible character than when only a private controversy is at stake." Porter v. Warner Holding, Co., 328 U.S. 395, 398 (1946). Accord Virginian Ry. Co. v. Sys. Fed'n. No. 40, 300 U.S. 515, 552 (1937) ("Courts of equity may, and frequently do, go much farther both to give and withhold relief in furtherance of the public interest than they are accustomed to go when only private interests are involved.") (collecting cases); Golden State Bottling Co. v. NLRB, 414 U.S. 168, 179-80 (1973) (same).

HERE IN THIS CASE THE DEFENDANTS UPON INFORMATION AND BELIEF HAVE RETAILATED AGAISNT FEDERAL WITNESS AND VICTIM OF CRIME OF THE US GOVERNMENT AND IN MY CASE ILLEGALLY UNLAWFULLY UPSURATION OF BUSINESS, NAME, IDENTITY THEFT, OPPRESSION, ETC.

In accordance with these principles, courts have imposed a wide variety of highly intrusive equitable remedies in institutional reform litigation to remedy constitutional violations and to foster paramount public interests, including various structural reforms.¹³ Typically in such cases, the equitable relief afforded exceeds an injunction enjoining the proscribed conduct, and also encompasses compelled changes in practices, structural changes and prolonged court-supervision over implementation of the equitable relief. See generally, DOBBS, Vol. Two at 348-353.

a defendant committed or intended to commit a RICO violation by establishing the same elements as in a criminal RICO case, except that criminal intent is not required; and (2) that there is a reasonable likelihood that the defendant will commit a violation in the futurThe egregious facts of this case and Defendants' pattern of RICO activities warrants a Temporary Restraining Order, preliminary or permanent injunction, asset freeze and/or appointment pre-judgment writ of atchments, including injunctive relief, reasonable restrictions on defendants' future activities, disgorgement of unlawful proceeds, divestiture, dissolution, reorganization, removal from positions in an entity, and appointment of court officers to administer and supervise the affairs and operations of defendants' entities and to assist courts in monitoring compliance with courts' orders and in imposing sanctions for violations of courts' orders

Moreover, the Supreme Court has pointedly ruled that where "the public interest is involved. . . those equitable powers assume an even broader and more flexible character than when only a private controversy is at stake." Porter v. Warner Holding, Co., 328 U.S. 395, 398 (1946). Accord Virginian Ry. Co. v. Sys. Fed'n, No. 40, 300 U.S. 515, 552 (1937) ("Courts of equity may, and frequently do, go much farther both to give and withhold relief in furtherance of the public interest than they are accustomed to go when only private interests are involved.") (collecting cases); Golden State Bottling Co. v. NLRB, 414 U.S. 168, 179-80 (1973) (same).¹²

In accordance with these principles, courts have imposed a wide variety of highly intrusive equitable remedies in institutional reform litigation to remedy constitutional violations and to foster paramount public interests, including various structural reforms.¹³ Typically in such cases, the equitable relief afforded exceeds an injunction enjoining the proscribed conduct, and also encompasses compelled

1 changes in practices, structural changes and prolonged court-supervision over implementation of 2 the equitable relief. See generally, DOBBS, Vol. Two at 348-353.

3 In a civil RICO 1964(a) it authorizes district courts to impose intrusive, structural reforms
4 including, but not limited to, divestiture, Adissolution or reorganization of any enterprise, @
5 Areasonable restrictions on the future activities or investments of any person" and Aprohibiting
6 any person from engaging in RICO, 18 U.S.C. ' 1961(3), provides that " 18 'person' includes
7 any individual or entity

8 capable of holding a legal or beneficial interest in property," which includes a corporation, 9 union, partnership and a sole proprietorship. individual, partnership, corporation, association, or 10 other legal entity, and any union or group of individuals associated in fact although not a legal 11 entity." the same type of endeavor as the enterprise engaged in."(emphasis added).18

12 Indeed, the Senate Committee Report regarding RICO emphasized the expansive and 13 flexible nature of the equitable relief authorized under ' 1964(a), stating:

14 The use of such remedies as prohibitory injunctions and the issuing 15 of orders of divestment or dissolution is explicitly authorized.

16 Nevertheless, it must be emphasized that these remedies are not 17 exclusive, and that [RICO] seeks essentially an economic, not a 18 punitive goal. However remedies may be fashioned, it is necessary 19 to free the channels of commerce from predatory activities, but 20 there is no intent to visit punishment on any individual; the purpose
21 is civil. The unites States is a corporation rule by Obama,

9 The Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act ("RICO"), 18 U.S.C.
 10 § 1961 et seq., expressly authorizes the Attorney General to seek pre-trial restraining 11 orders in civil actions. 28 U.S.C. § 1964(a) provides that district courts "shall have 12 jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violations of section 1962 of this chapter by issuing appropriate orders" Section 1964(b) provides:

13 "The Attorney General may institute proceedings under 14 this section. Pending final determination thereof, the court 15 may at any time enter such restraining orders or prohibitions, 16 or take such other actions, including the acceptance of satisfactory performance bonds, as it shall deem proper."

20 3.any property constituting, or derived from, any proceeds which the person obtained, 21 directly or indirectly, from racketeering activity or unlawful debt collection in violation 22 of section 1962. The court, in imposing sentence on such person shall order, in addition 23 to any other sentence imposed pursuant to this section, that the person forfeit to the 24 United States all property described in this subsection. In lieu of a fine otherwise 25 authorized by this section, a defendant who derives profits or other proceeds from an 26 offense may be fined not more than twice the gross profits or other proceeds.

27 (b) Property subject to criminal forfeiture under this section includes -

28 1.real property, including things growing on, affixed to, and found in land; and

29 2.tangible and intangible personal property, including rights, privileges, interests, claims 30 and securities.

31 (c) All right, title, and interest in property described in subsection (a) vests in the United States
 32 upon the commission of the act giving rise to forfeiture under this section. Any such property
 33 that is subsequently transferred to a person other than the defendant may be the subject of a 34 special verdict of forfeiture and thereafter shall be ordered forfeited to the United States, unless 35 the transferee establishes in a hearing pursuant to subsection (1) that he is a bona fide purchaser

1 for value of such property who at the time of purchase was reasonable without cause to believe 2 that the property was subject to forfeiture under this section.

3 (d)

4 1. Upon application of the United States, the court may enter a restraining order or 5 injunction, require the execution of a satisfactory performance bond, or take any other
6 action to preserve the availability of property described in subsection (a) for forfeiture
7 under this section -

8 (A) upon the filing of an indictment or information charging a violation of 9 section 1962 of this chapter and alleging that the property with respect to which 10 the order is sought would, in the event of conviction, be subject to forfeiture 11 under this section; or

12 (B) prior to the filing of such an indictment or information, if, after notice to 13 persons appearing to have an interest in the property and opportunity for a 14 hearing, the court determines that

15 (i) there is a substantial probability that the United States will prevail on 16 the issue of forfeiture and that failure to enter the order will result in the 17 property being destroyed, removed from the jurisdiction of the court, or 18 otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture; and

19 (ii) the need to preserve the availability of the property through the entry 20 of the requested order outweighs the hardship on any party against 21 whom the order is to be entered: Provided, however, that an order 22 entered pursuant to subparagraph (B) shall be effective for not more than 23 ninety days, unless extended by the court for good cause shown or 24 unless an indictment or information described in subparagraph (A) has 25 been filed.

26 2. A temporary restraining order under this subsection may be entered upon application of 27 the United States without notice or opportunity for a hearing when an information or 28 indictment has not yet been filed with respect to the property, if the United States demonstrates that there is probable cause to believe that the property with respect to which the order is sought would, in the event of conviction, be subject to forfeiture under this section and that provision of notice will jeopardize the availability of the property for forfeiture. Such a temporary order shall expire not more than ten days after the date on which it is entered, unless extended for a longer period. A hearing requested concerning an order entered under this paragraph shall be held at the earliest possible time, and prior to the expiration of the temporary order.

1 3. The court may receive and consider, at a hearing held pursuant to this subsection, 2 evidence and information that would be inadmissible under the Federal Rules of 3 Evidence.

4 (e) Upon conviction of a person under this section, the court shall enter a judgment of forfeiture
5 of the property to the United States and shall also authorize the Attorney General to seize all 6 property ordered forfeited upon such terms and conditions as the court shall deem proper.
7 Following the entry of an order declaring the property forfeited, the court may, upon application
8 of the United States, enter such appropriate restraining orders or injunctions, require the 9 execution of satisfactory performance bonds, appoint receivers, conservators, appraisers, 10 accountants, or trustees, or take any other action to protect the interest of the United States in the 11 property ordered forfeited. Any income accruing to, or derived from, an enterprise or an interest
12 in an enterprise which has been ordered forfeited under this section may be used to offset 13 ordinary and necessary expenses to the enterprise which are required by law, or which are 14 necessary to protect the interest of the United States or third parties.

15 (f) Following the seizure of property ordered forfeited under this section, the Attorney General 16 shall direct the disposition of the property by sale or any other commercially feasible means,
17 making due provision of the rights of any innocent persons. Any property right or interest not 18 exercisable by, or transferable for value to, the United States shall expire and shall not revert to

A CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATION IS WARRANTED

A Congressional Investigation is warranted to gather information. There is a pending investigation in the fast and furious, and The United State Congress must investigate Public Housing, embezzlement of HUD funds, dissolution, re-organization of public housing, of the executive branch (OBAMA, HOLDER et al.) and and Federal Judges to exposes the RICO violations of these public officials and /or to promote to the Interest of the United States Government , American People and the public.

SPECIAL PROSECUTOR IS WARRANTED

A Special Prosecutor is warranted to gather information, of the executive branch (OBAMA, HOLDER et al.) and and Federal Judges to exposes the RICO violations of these public officials and /or to promote to the Interest of the United States Government , American People and the public.

any predisposition on defendant's part. Government's conduct may warrant dismissal of indictment if conduct is so excessive, flagrant, scandalous, intolerable and offensive as to violate due process. In this case the Defendants are being sued, and the Defendants have a personal stake in prosecuting, and falsely imprisoning the complainant.

The Plaintiff has made pre shown, per this case, tampering with evidence, concealment, two or three false imprisonments and based on perjured testimony, abuse of US Government power,

Court has inherent supervisory powers to order dismissal of prosecution based on government misconduct only for three legitimate reasons: dismissal is only warranted to implement remedy for violation of recognized statutory or constitutional right, to preserve judicial integrity by ensuring that conviction rests on appropriate considerations validly before jury, and to deter future illegal conduct.

"Outrageous government conduct" is not defense but rather claim that government conduct in securing indictment was so shocking to due process values that indictment must be dismissed.

Vindictive, selective prosecution and because the Plaintiff has filed civil and/or criminal action against the Defendants. The outrageous conduct of the Defendants are not entitled to hold Office, Defendants are not entitled to make any decision or hold any public

The Defendants at all times mention have a personal stake in bringing a prosecution against the Plaintiff.

Defendants the Defendants should be barred from bringing criminal prosecution of the Plaintiff "selective prosecution. The flagrant, gross, the Defendants are barred from criminal prosecution, higher officials require greater liability than officials with less complex and discretionary responsibilities. *Hatori v. D. The granting of the injunction would not harm the public interest.

The Supreme Court has pointedly ruled that where "the public interest is involved. . . those equitable powers assume an even broader and more flexible character than when only a private controversy is at stake." Porter v. Warner Holding, Co., 328 U.S. 395, 398 (1946).

Where a party demonstrates both the likelihood of success on the merits and irreparable injury, it almost always will be the case that the public interest will favor the issuance of an injunction will protect the public interest, protect the US Government. Many citizens, from the illegally, unlawful overt acts of the Defendants, the Plaintiff the supplying of illegal weapons to Mexico, without congress approval, the Defendants to turn over federal documents, for the Federal False Claims, etc. and the Fast and Furious been in contempt of the "recent" scandal FAST AND FURIOUS, involving the illegal supplying of weapons (transportation of stolen weapons across state lines). the death of many citizens and to protect our boarder, and in the interest of National security. Obama, and Holder et al is guilty of either gross negligence, or catastrophic incompetence. This court must enter a Injunction against the Defendants.

The United States ex, rel Sharon Bridgewater has made a probable cause It is a fact that

The issuance of a pretrial restraining order is not discretionary: if the Government makes the required probable cause showing, the court must enter the order.

C. The Injury to Sharon Bridgewater outweigh the harm an injunction may causeDefendants;

The entry of a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction giving Plaintiffs

Writ of attachment, assets, and/or a for the Defendants to post a bond will cause no harm whatsoever to Defendants and the prevention of eviction of camp take notice.

16 The Defendants have constantly filed false charges, formed, frabrucated "fake" Pattern and 17 Practices of the Defendants, programs to obtain US Government Funds and without the Plaintiff
18 to Defraud the Plaintiff out of her right to recovery of Damages, and out of personal and business 19 property. The Defendants are criminal and should be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.
20 malicious prosecution, obstruction of justice, frabracation of evidence.

21 The Defendants have a personal stake, and know that the Plaintiff is filing this suit by illegal
22 interception of the Plaintiff e-mailing of complaint to attorney. Any prosecution of the Plaintiff 23 violates due process of law, is bias,

6 Plaintiff herein submits the following documentation to prove that is established that there is a

10 Plaintiff herein is submitting a separate statement of undisputed facts as well as request
11 for judicial notice of the adjudicated facts in the unlawful detainer case entitled Hayes Valley
12 Limited Partnership which is done to make an offer of proof that no only will plaintiff show that 13 there is not only a reasonable probability that plaintiff will prevail in this case but that in fact 14 there are no defenses to the Defendants overt acts, for there conduct as they have actually 15 defraud the United States Government, by trick, deceit and scheme, deceived this Court in the 16 Unlawful Detainer in violation of both California Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 5-200 (A)
17 & (B) and Business & Professions Code section 6128 (a) by there acts of deceiving both Plaintiff
18 and the court and no eviction could proceed, see Exhibits _____

21 The basis for this law suit is clearly shown in the Separate Statement of Undisputed Facts
22 that at all times the no rent was due, and the Defendant failed to serve the Plaintiff with a notice
23 to terminate her tenancy as required by Federal and/or State law.

25 It is plaintiff's contention that essential element, to convict someone of a crime, or to 26 make a traffic stop, or to evict someone from an apartment requires proper due process of law, 27 and according to Federal or State law. The traffic stops, tickets, evictions, could not be could

5 decided to proceed on the unlawful detainer in a civil conspiracy with Roger Tonna and Mary
6 Tonna, and/or Hayes Valley Limited Partnership tortuously interfered with the Plaintiffs 7 contracts.

10 The pleadings submitted hereto clearly shows that not only will plaintiff prevail in this 11 action but that the conduct of the attorneys in the unlawful detainer shows and proves the 12 attorneys in question here violated B & P Code section 6128 (a) in not only deceiving plaintiff of 13 her rights to possession of her apartment but also deceived the Court as the attorneys over 14 stepped the bounds of an attorney as attorneys are officers of the Court first and cannot

 19 Plaintiff herein submits the following documentation to prove that is, to establish that plaintiff 20 will prevail in these causes of actions.

21 Plaintiff herein is submitting a separate statement of undisputed facts of the adjudicated
 22 facts in the unlawful detainer case entitled Hayes Valley Limited Partnership vs. Sharon 23 Bridgewater Case No. CUD 06-617995 which is done to make an offer of proof that not only 24 will plaintiff prevail in this case, but in fact, there are no defenses. The defendants actually 25 deceived the Court in the Unlawful Detainer lawsuit; as their acts of deceiving both Plaintiff and 26 the court that all rental payments were made and accepted by Hayes Valley Limited Partnership 27 and no eviction could proceeded.
 28

2 The basis for this law suit is clearly shown in the Separate Statement of Undisputed Facts
3 with this verified complaint that at all times the defendants Hayes Valley Limited Partnership
4 and their attorneys, knew that at all times the rents demanded in the "Five Day Notice to Pay
5 Rent or Quit" was both paid and accepted by the defendants herein and as such no unlawful 6 detainer, eviction, or Stipulated Judgment could have proceeded.

8 It is plaintiff's contention that the essential element of the unlawful detainer could not be 9 proven i.e. for non payment of the rents as demanded during the time frame in the unlawful 10 detainer. The defendants and their attorney(s), who on the very day of trial knew that the rental
11 ledger clearly showed that the defendants herein accepted the rents and that by said action 12 prohibits any eviction.
13

14 However, irrespected by said undisputed facts, the defendants still evicted Plaintiff
15 Bridgewater "fraudulently" even though Hayes Valley Limited Partnership had accepted rental 16 payment after the filing and service of the unlawful detainer.
17

18 Hayes Valley Limited Partnership authorized the law firm of Kimball, Tirey & St. John, 19 LLP and attorneys Shawn Bankson, Jane Creason to deceive both plaintiff and this Court of the 20 undisputed facts that rental payments were in fact made and accepted.
21

22 This acts of the defendants are a criminal violation of California Law B & P Code section
23 6128 (a) as they not only deceived plaintiff they also deceived the Court that all rental payments 24 were in fact made as demanded in the unlawful detainer and thus violated a duty owed to 25 plaintiff to fair dealings and only to present the truth.

26 This is proven by a copy of the rental ledger attached as Exhibit 3 in the complaint.
27 The witnesses(defendants)would have had to testify that the rents were not collected for the time 28

1 frame as alleged under penalty of perjury by Mr. Bankson, clearly the under said proof plaintiff
2 would have been entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.

3 The pleadings submitted hereto clearly shows that not only will plaintiff prevail the cause
4 actions, but that the conduct of the attorneys in the unlawful detainer shows and proves the 5 attorneys in question here violated California B & P Code section 6128 (a) in not only deceiving
6 plaintiff of her rights to possession of her apartment but also deceived the Court as the attorneys
7 over stepped the bounds of an attorney; as attorneys are officers of the Court first and cannot 8 misrepresent facts to the court to obtain a decision in their favor.

11 plaintiff.

DECLARATION IN SUPPORT

I declare as follows:

1. That I am the plaintiff herein and if called to testify I can do so based upon first hand knowledge.

2. That I was a defendant in an unlawful detainer entitled Hayes Valley Limited Partnership vs. Sharon Bridgewater case No.CUD 06- 617995.

3. That all rents as demanded in the five day notice to pay rent or quit and Hayes Valley Limited Partnership accepted the payments.

4. That said attorneys for Hayes Valley Limited Partnership refused to acknowledge that fact to either me or the Court even though the rental ledger reflected that all rents as demanded were paid and accepted and done prior to any settlement conference.

5. In fact these attorneys at all times demanded additional payments outside what was demanded by the five notice to pay rent or quit.

6. All statements in the verified complaint and Separate statement of undisputed facts are true.

7. That as a matter of law these attorneys had a legal duty not deceive either me or the court of these facts.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that all of the foregoing is true and correct.
