Synopsis

Several videos circulated on social media following the New Year's Eve in the US where it was reportedly seen that iconic monuments like US Capitol, Washington Monument and many others were struck by lightning. The MAGA world as a result of this went berserk while calming that it was the divine message of God.

On the New Year's Eve, lightning struck several iconic landmarks in the US which eventually included the pretty significant Capitol Building and Washington Monument in Washington DC and the One World Trade Center and Empire State Building located in New York City, reported Newsweek. This unusual phenomenon eventually occurred as thousands gathered to celebrate the New Year while prompting speculation among US President-elect Donald Trump supporters on social media about whether it was a divine message.

The four-day Value and Valuation Masterclass offers a hands-on dive into value investing principles and its application in the real world.

The workshop, which features case studies on notable companies like Tata Motors and Zomato to demonstrate real-world applications, is spread across two weekends - 11th, 12th, 18th & 19th January.

Here's a closer look at the key takeaways and topics covered in the masterclass:

Intrinsic Value Calculation

The masterclass emphasizes methods for calculating intrinsic value, a cornerstone of value investing. This calculation takes into account projected earnings, potential growth, and existing market conditions to reveal the true worth of a stock.

Analyzing Financial Statements

Value investors need to understand a company's financial health thoroughly. Key statements like the income statement, balance sheet, and cash flow statement are reviewed in detail to help investors make informed decisions.

Valuation Techniques

Various valuation techniques are introduced, including discounted cash flow (DCF) and comparable company analysis, to equip attendees with a comprehensive toolkit for evaluating investment opportunities.

Benefits of the Masterclass

The masterclass not only delves into the technical aspects of value investing but also provides interactive sessions where attendees can clarify doubts and discuss case studies with instructors. Participants receive one year of access to recorded sessions, allowing for continuous review and application of the concepts learned.
